Chief Whip - Memoirs of a Dominatrix By Natalie Rowe

WARNING: EXPLICIT MATERIAL

Chief Whip is an unforgettable tale, a 'Prostitute's Progress', full of incredible and uncensored extreme sexual encounters.

It charts the dramatic career of Natalie Rowe, the country's foremost, and most notorious dominatrix. Natalie's story is packed full of sex, drugs and misbehaving men from the highest echelons of society (including billionaires, bankers, actors, soldiers, sports stars, Old Etonians and government ministers) who were into spanking, whipping, caning, squashing, suffocating (as well as even stranger things, never before seen in print).

Funny, touching, and shockingly explicit, Chief Whip doesn't let up for a single sentence.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Natalie Rowe arrived in London from Bradford aged fourteen with a change of clothes and thirty pence to her name. Within two years she was working as a high-class hooker to the residents of London's five-star hotels. In her mid-twenties she founded her own business, Black Beauties - the UK's first ever agency specializing on Caribbean, African and Brazilian girls - before going on to become an extremely passionate and successful dominatrix.
