Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

An updated, streamlined Enhanced Pearson eText based on the highly successful previous editions of Teaching and Learning with Technology, this resource presents student-friendly resource for preparing the 21st century teacher to integrate technology into the classroom as an educational technology leader and advocate. This eText provides a current look at the range of educational technologies available for use in today's classrooms, and the many ways teachers can use technology to effectively enhance teaching and learning. Chapter learning outcomes are aligned to NETS-T Standards, and key topics in the chapters; a unique explanation-demonstration-application approach introduces and demonstrates content and follows up with application activities; and this new edition includes a number of outstanding interactive features within the Pearson eText bring the concepts to life, among them:

- Voices from the Classroom is a feature with videos of educators both in an out of the classroom demonstrating and discussing the technology relevant to almost every chapter. These voices of real teacher telling their own stories about technologies they have integrated into their teaching help students see how educational technology is relevant to real classrooms. (See pages 109, 170, and 213 for examples.)
- Tech Tutors are videos that demonstrate key technology skills teachers that teachers will need to know and use in the classroom. (See pages 57, 74, and 147 for examples - click the play button on the image to start video.)
- Foto Flips are interactive images that allow students to flip through and examine multiple images, each with a detailed caption, whether segments of a timeline or sample technologies. (See pages 149, 153, and 235 for examples.)
- End of Chapter Assessments. Embedded assessments with feedback help students review new terms and concepts and encourage reflection and discussion on the issues of the chapter. These are presented within the Pearson eText as interactive quizzes. (See pages 117, 281, and 304 for examples.)
