Perfect (Elite Doms of Washington) (Volume 3) By Elizabeth SaFleur

Sometimes the perfect man is the one who's most forbidden. After her husband's death, Isabella Santos fled Washington and its bruising memories. But estate matters force her to return and fate gives her a chance to connect with a man she'd always secretly longed to call Master—Mark, the brother of her late husband. Mark, retired from his black ops career, grabs the second chance Isabella's sudden appearance in D.C. presents. He's never forgiven his late brother's neglect of Isabella, a woman he's loved from afar for ten years. Now reunited, he's determined to earn her heart and submission. As their forbidden love blooms, they forge a perfect domestic discipline life that provides a feeling of oneness and completion. But her family's opposition and demons from her late husband's life intervene. In the end, the only way to have the future they've dreamed of, will mean both must come to terms with the past.
