Our fantasies can be alluring but also bittersweet. It's this tension that makes David Drebin's sensuous imagery so spellbinding. In his latest collection, this acclaimed contemporary photographer creates taut visual narratives around each of his luscious heroine's voyages of seduction. Aloof yet irresistible, the women remain tantalizingly anonymous even though there are a few mega stars among them. Set against a global backdrop of sophistication, the locales range from New York to Jerusalem, Miami to Istanbul. Whom will they seduce? Whom will they reject? Follow this spellbinding photographic master of intrigue as he takes us on a journey that could shock but might also lead to bliss.

Editorial Review

Review

"If you're a fan of Drebin's work, this book will certainly be a good thing to have on your coffee table."

~Just Luxe

"This is a story about beautiful things. Thinks that look just as beautiful wearing a long red dress in the evening as they do wearing a set of white linens in the morning. Dark-haired things. Yellow-haired things. Things... that would look really good on your coffee table." ~Urban Daddy
