Le Corbusier in Macedonia: The History of a Myth: Le Corbusier and his source of inspiration By Kujtim Elezi

Searching Le Corbusier's travels to Macedonia and studying his "secretly" usage of Macedonia as a source of his architecture will make the basis of the work. The study discovers new, unknown details about Le Corbusier's source of inspiration at the very beginning of his modern architecture. Moreover, the importance of the study was to discover how an artistic soul like the one of Le Corbusier was provoked and decides to travel through Macedonia, how was he inspired from houses in Macedonia and at the very end, why Macedonia remains secret for all his life.
