Secrets of East Anglian Magic By Nigel Pennick

A practical guide to the traditional secrets of the magical practitioners of East Anglia. Containing a wealth of magical tradition , this book reveals its origins and mysteries and explains its underlying prnciples enabling the reader to come into a dynamic interaction with the cyclic workings of the seasons. Through the "nameless art", nature, personified by spirits, becomes approachable. This book gives a brief history of magic in this region, and explains the current use of its ancient skills and wisdom. It serves as a rich sourcebook for talismanic magic, charms against evil, household and animal magic, folk remedies, ceremonies of protection, curative spells and recipes. It also offers an insight into the little-known techniques and traditions of East Anglia, with emphasis upon the practicla, useful nature of "nameless art" as a magical path to self-awareness.
