Cosmic Dances of the Zodiac By Lacquanna Paul, Robert Powell

CHOREOCOSMOS SCHOOL OF COSMIC AND SACRED DANCE Study Material for the Cosmic Dances of the Zodiac This work—a companion volume to Cosmic Dances of the Planets—has been prepared as a guide and format for learning the twelve cosmic dances which celebrate the creative streaming of the zodiacal constellations. The forms and patterns of movement are described and illustrated so that their purpose and inspiring archetypes can be readily grasped and understood. In addition, there is recommended meditative work that can be taken up depending on the time available. Legends and myths have existed throughout the ages concerning this greater macrocosm of which we are a part and which serves as an archetypal pattern for the forming of the human being. These stories provide an enrichment for our imagination and help to draw us more deeply into a conscious understanding and connection with the living currents (life body) of the cosmos, which holds the past as well as the future in a continuum of harmonic wisdom and order. Through the images we can begin to behold the cosmic realm as a relational field, a rhythmic constancy of archetypal pattern (space) and purposeful movement (time) which draws us ever closer to the divine purpose of the future. Astronomical and scientific findings and information are included as well as other material which has been formulated through observable phenomena over many hundreds of years. This information is offered as an enrichment to help deepen the cosmic dance material. This material is intended as a seed to help ferment the process of discovery in finding a relationship to the archetypes of the twelve signs of the zodiac.
