HE WOULD NOT BE DENIED HIS PRIZE

Sir Renaud de Pierrepont, the Norman knight known as the Red Wolf for the beast he slayed with his bare hands, hoped to gain lands with his sword. A year after the Conquest, King William rewards his favored knight with Talisand, the lands of an English thegn slain at Hastings, and orders him to wed Lady Serena, the heiress that goes with them.

SHE WOULD LOVE HIM AGAINST HER WILL

Serena wants nothing to do with the fierce warrior to whom she has been unwillingly given, the knight who may have killed her father. When she learns the Red Wolf is coming to claim her, she dyes her flaxen hair brown and flees, disguised as a servant, determined to one day regain her lands. But her escape goes awry and she is brought back to live among her people, though not unnoticed by the new Norman lord. Deprived of his promised bride, the Red Wolf turns his attention to the comely servant girl hoping to woo her to his bed. But the wench resists, claiming she hates all Normans. As the passion between them rises, Serena wonders, can she deny the Norman her body? Or her heart?

From the Author

The Medieval Warriors series:

The Red Wolf's Prize, Sir Renaud de Pierrepont, 2014

Rogue Knight, Sir Geoffroi de Tournai, 2015

Rebel Warrior, Steinar of Talisand, 2016

King's Knight, Sir Alexander of Talisand, 2016

About the Author

Bestselling author Regan Walker loved to write stories as a child, particularly about adventure-loving girls, but by the time she got to college more serious pursuits were encouraged. One of her professors suggested a career in law, and she took that path. Years of serving clients in private practice and several stints in high levels of government gave her a love of international travel and a feel for the demands of the "Crown."

Hence her romance novels often involve a demanding sovereign who taps his subjects for special assignments. Each of her novels features real history and real historic figures. And, of course, adventure and love!

Regan lives in San Diego with her golden retriever, Link, whom she says inspires her every day to relax and smell the roses. She loves to hear from readers...reganwalkerauthor.com
